

The Guernsey Tax Team

The Guernsey tax team at Grant Thornton aim to provide the island with a premier tax advisory service both to private clients and the Guernsey business community including the investment management industry.

Within the department we have a wide range of specialist skills gained with individuals who have extensive experience built from more than a combined 75 years in the tax profession.

The team provide a range of tax services to:

- the local client population, both individuals and companies
- the Guernsey funds industry, both locally and involving promoters and managers based elsewhere
- to fiduciaries relating to their clients, trusts etc
- to individuals living in different jurisdictions.

We cover a full range of compliance services to include preparation of tax returns and managing tax payments, as well as tax advice and planning.

Examples of our work include:

- A full compliance tax assurance service to prepare tax returns covering Guernsey and the UK, for individuals, companies and trusts
- Particular focus on the property sector to include advice on structuring property development, assurance with NRL, ATED and NRCGT returns, and dealing with HMRC enquiries
- Tax advice and wealth planning for high-net worth individuals
- Offshore trust returns as regards remittance/distribution pools for income/gains
- Advice to expatriate employees in other UK/Guernsey jurisdiction
- Employees' incentive schemes, EBTs and share options
- Advice on structuring offshore funds and dealing with reporting fund applications, annual tax reporting and investor communications relating thereto

- Assistance with listing to include prospectus reviews
- Advice on FATCA and CRS, how it affects Guernsey businesses and what processes need putting in place to comply.

Our expertise, in association with Grant Thornton member firms around the world provide Tax advice to:

Team Members

Mark Colver, Tax Director

Mark joined Grant Thornton in June 2009 as head of the Guernsey Tax Department, bringing with him more than 25 years experience of corporate and personal tax in both Guernsey and the UK.

He previously worked for one of the big four firms in the UK, then Guernsey and specialises in corporate tax for Guernsey businesses, as well as advising Groups who often have a presence in Europe. He also provides tax advice and wealth planning for high net worth individuals living in different jurisdictions as well as providing advice to the fund industry for both planning and assurance services. He has a particular industry focus on the property sector.

Mark sits on the tax committee of the local accountants society and is regularly involved in consultations with the tax authorities on changes and developments to the tax regime.

Neil Hoolahan, Tax Director

Neil specialises in all aspects of UK tax compliance and advice undertaken for Trusts and Offshore Companies, and in UK taxation of employee benefit trusts and pension schemes. He undertakes reviews of existing structures to ensure they are fit for purpose, and proposes restructuring where required to ensure maximum tax benefits.

Neil has undertaken a number of large voluntary disclosures of historic undeclared income and/or gains, and arranged settlement with HMRC to ensure the least disruption to the beneficiaries' personal position whilst discharging the trustees' liabilities. He also specialises in FATCA and the implications for local businesses to implement cost-effective ways of dealing with the regulations.

Liz Hawke, Assistant Tax Manager

Liz joined Grant Thornton in April 2009 having graduated from the University of Brighton in 2008 with a 2:1 honours degree. She is ATT and CTA qualified. Liz has knowledge of Guernsey & UK personal and company tax.

Nikki Le Messurier, Tax Co-ordinator

Nikki joined Grant Thornton in September 2013 having previously worked for one of the big four firms in Guernsey. She is STEP and ATT qualified. Nikki has experience of trust tax and Guernsey & UK personal and company tax.
